

Realty Guild announces Presidential Award winner

Fran Snelwar has received the Presidential Award for 2007, given for exceptional sales success. Ms. Snelwar has been either the Top Producer or Presidential Award recipient the last eight years she has been with the company.

“Fran’s success year after year is the result of her experience, her diligence and the care she gives each of her clients,” said Barbara Cleary, president of the company. “She makes the real estate process enjoyable because she’s just extremely sensitive to people’s needs.”

Ms. Snelwar has been a Realtor in New Canaan for more than 20 years. She has twice served as a director of the New Canaan Board of Realtors, as well as serving on its membership committee.

She specializes in the New Canaan, Darien and Wilton real estate markets.

In addition to her real estate career, she is a writer and has published several books for young adults, as well as travel articles for newspapers and magazines.

Ms. Snelwar has been a New Canaan resident for more than 30 years, raising both her sons here. She also owns a vacation home on Kiawah Island, S.C.

Barbara Cleary’s Realty Guild, exclusive affiliate of Christie’s Great Estates, is located at 6 South Avenue and has a Web site at NewCanaanHomes.com. Ms. Snelwar can be reached at 966-7772.
