

Realty Guild announces Top Producer for 2007

Ruth McIntyre won the Top Producer Award for 2007 at Barbara Cleary's Realty Guild, capping her second straight year as the company's top agent.

"Ruth continues to distinguish herself as one of New Canaan's top Realtors," Ms. Cleary, president of the company, said in a press release. "She's got high energy and clear focus, and she's committed to solving her clients' issues and completing their goals."

According to the company, Ms. McIntyre's success can be traced to her experience living for years in Canada, Denmark and Paris, and "understanding first-hand the unique challenges and emotions involved with settling happily into a new community."

Prior to real estate, Ms. McIntyre's career was in accounting. She was manager of the Accounting Department at Reader's Digest in Montreal for 10 years and owned an accounting firm specializing in small business operations. While in Paris she worked in fund-raising and events planning for the American school. She attended McGill University in Montreal.

Ms. McIntyre resides in New Canaan with her husband and three children. She and her family belong to the Lake Club and she is an avid tennis and paddle tennis player, competing on the statewide level.

She specializes in the New Canaan, Darien and Wilton real estate markets, and can be reached at 966-7772, ext. 315.

Barbara Cleary's Realty Guild, an exclusive affiliate of Christie's Great Estates, is located at 6 South Avenue.
